< jr0.org >

Intro

Sometime this summer, there was a UI change that moved some pages around in the sidebar. Here is a guide to show how to access "All time" metrics in PostHog for the new UI.

This is one of the resources made for onboarding new members, and the rest of these resources can be found at jr0.org.

Visitors are actually "Unique Visitors" based on how PostHog defines as separate users. A Page View is any page that gets loaded. Sessions are separate uses from users that may not be unique. If a user returns the next day, it counts as a separate Session but not as another Visitor.
